- Fill out your business model canvas using one of the following websites:
 - <http://www.businessmodelgeneration.com/canvas/bmc>
 - <https://canvanizer.com>
 - You don't have to use these websites, but this format must be used.
- A Business Model Canvas is a lean startup template for developing your business model. It is a visual chart with elements describing a firm or product's value proposition, infrastructure, customers, and finances.
 - Focus on Product-Market Fit first. This means completing the Value Proposition and Customer Segment boxes.
- Innovative ideas change constantly. That is why you are not creating a business plan. The Business Model Canvas is a living document, and you should treat it as such. Update each section as your idea grows.

March 29th and 30th

Competition Itinerary

Taking place in the Wisconsin Institute of Discovery, H.F. DeLuca Forum

- Opening remarks will be held at 9:00am in Wisconsin Institute of Discovery on March 29th. We ask all participants to be present.
- You can check-in at the Transcend booth at any time on March 29th with your poster, but we recommend you do so early so it can be on display for the entire day. Check-in and poster set up will begin at 8:00am.
 - Use your poster to explain the problem and display your solution, your idea.
- We understand you have class commitments; however, you should prepare ahead of time so that your team can be present for as much of the two days as possible next to your poster to promote your idea to passersby:
 - We have over 100 entrepreneurial leaders from the community invited to view the presenters and poster boards, make an impression.
- There will be two rounds of judging. In the first round, every team will present to the panel of judges. The judges will then deliberate and select teams for call backs. This is a chance for selected teams to refine their pitch and answer any remaining questions the judges may have before judges make their final decisions.
- You will be sent an initial presentation time slot between your submission on March 14th and March 24th.
 - Your team is expected to arrive for your designated presentation time 15 minutes early. We will have your presentation PowerPoint prepared ahead of time.
- The competition will close on March 30th. We will make our closing remarks and announce prizes. You must be present.

To end Transcend Madison, you are all invited to join us at a celebratory social. Stay tuned for details.
